Benefiting Colorado Youth for a Change
Since Colorado Youth for a Change was founded in 2005, we have seen a significant decrease in the number of students dropping out of Colorado high schools. We continue to grow in size and scope, as we work to increase the number of students who graduate high school or earn a GED. With over 9,000 Colorado students dropping out each year, we need your help!

We believe all students can overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles to learn, to succeed in school, and to graduate. Our work involves two core strategies: in-school prevention programming based on early warning signs of dropping out (poor attendance and lack of engagement in high school and not reading on grade level in elementary school) as well as outreach and reengagement for students who’ve dropped out of school. Last year the organization served over 2,800 students.

STEVE SIMEONE
Steve made his Comedy Central debut on Gabriel Iglesias’ “Stand Up Revolution” in 2014. This year, Steve returns to Comedy Central on Ari Shaffir’s “This is Not Happening” Storytelling show. Steve was chosen by Honda to represent their summer “Cheerance” Campaign featuring his comedy in a series of national spots. His first album “Remember This” went to the top of the charts on both Billboard and ITunes. Steve developed his unique high-energy approach to storytelling by competing for laughs with his two brothers around the family dinner table. His positive, family friendly approach to comedy has delighted audiences around the world and made him a paid regular at Hollywood’s most prestigious comedy clubs including The Comedy Store, Hollywood Improv, and Laugh Factory. Tune into Steve’s popular podcast “Good Times” or catch him on Joey Diaz’s “The Church of What’s Happening Now” and become one of his buddies.
